2024 LIVING IMPRESSIONS™ COLLECTION

9915 Prosecco Quartzite

The 2024 Living Impressions™ Collection features a harmonious blend of luxe pattern and colour. This rich array of sophisticated surfaces draws inspiration from three emerging design trends, resulting in seven elevated large-scale 180fx® stone patterns and six Formica® Laminate patterns.

The new residential surface collection was created on the foundation of three emerging design trends:

MODERN MINIMALISM
Warm whites and minimal patterns that are understated and soft without losing their edge.

CASUALLY BIOPHILIC
Nature-inspired elements that emulate the healing of the outdoors for indoor spaces.

CONTEMPORARY CLASSIC
Classic stone patterns reimagined with a modern twist.

180FX® COLLECTION

Seven 180fx® patterns bring new sophistication and blends of colour to the revolutionary surface line that offers visually dramatic true-to-scale designs.

9916 Fractured Marble

9920 JATOBA GREEN

Harmonious waves of deep forest and cool juniper are accented by shades of light sage, yellow-green and green-beige.

9919 JATOBA BROWN

This traditional colour of jatoba has bands of veins in colours of black and chocolate with shades of red-brown, golden brown and beige.

9921

SAHARA NOIR

A dramatic and unique marble pattern, Sahara Noir features clean strokes of terra cotta and warm gray-white veining that create a highly graphic and sophisticated pattern.

9917

HAZELNUT TRAVERTINE

Multiple shades of beige, taupe, warm gray and brown highlight the classic beauty of vein-cut travertine, complemented with a SatinTouch™ smooth texture for a modern appeal.

9918

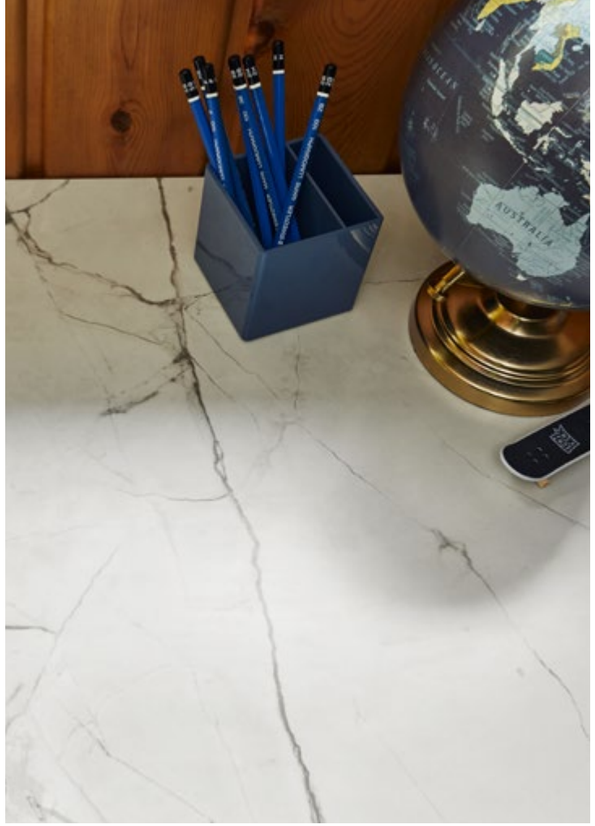
BRECCIA MOJAVE

Simulated black and gray basalt fragments mix with soft terra cotta to create an impactful breccia pattern inspired by the beauty of the desert.

9915

PROSECCO QUARTZITE

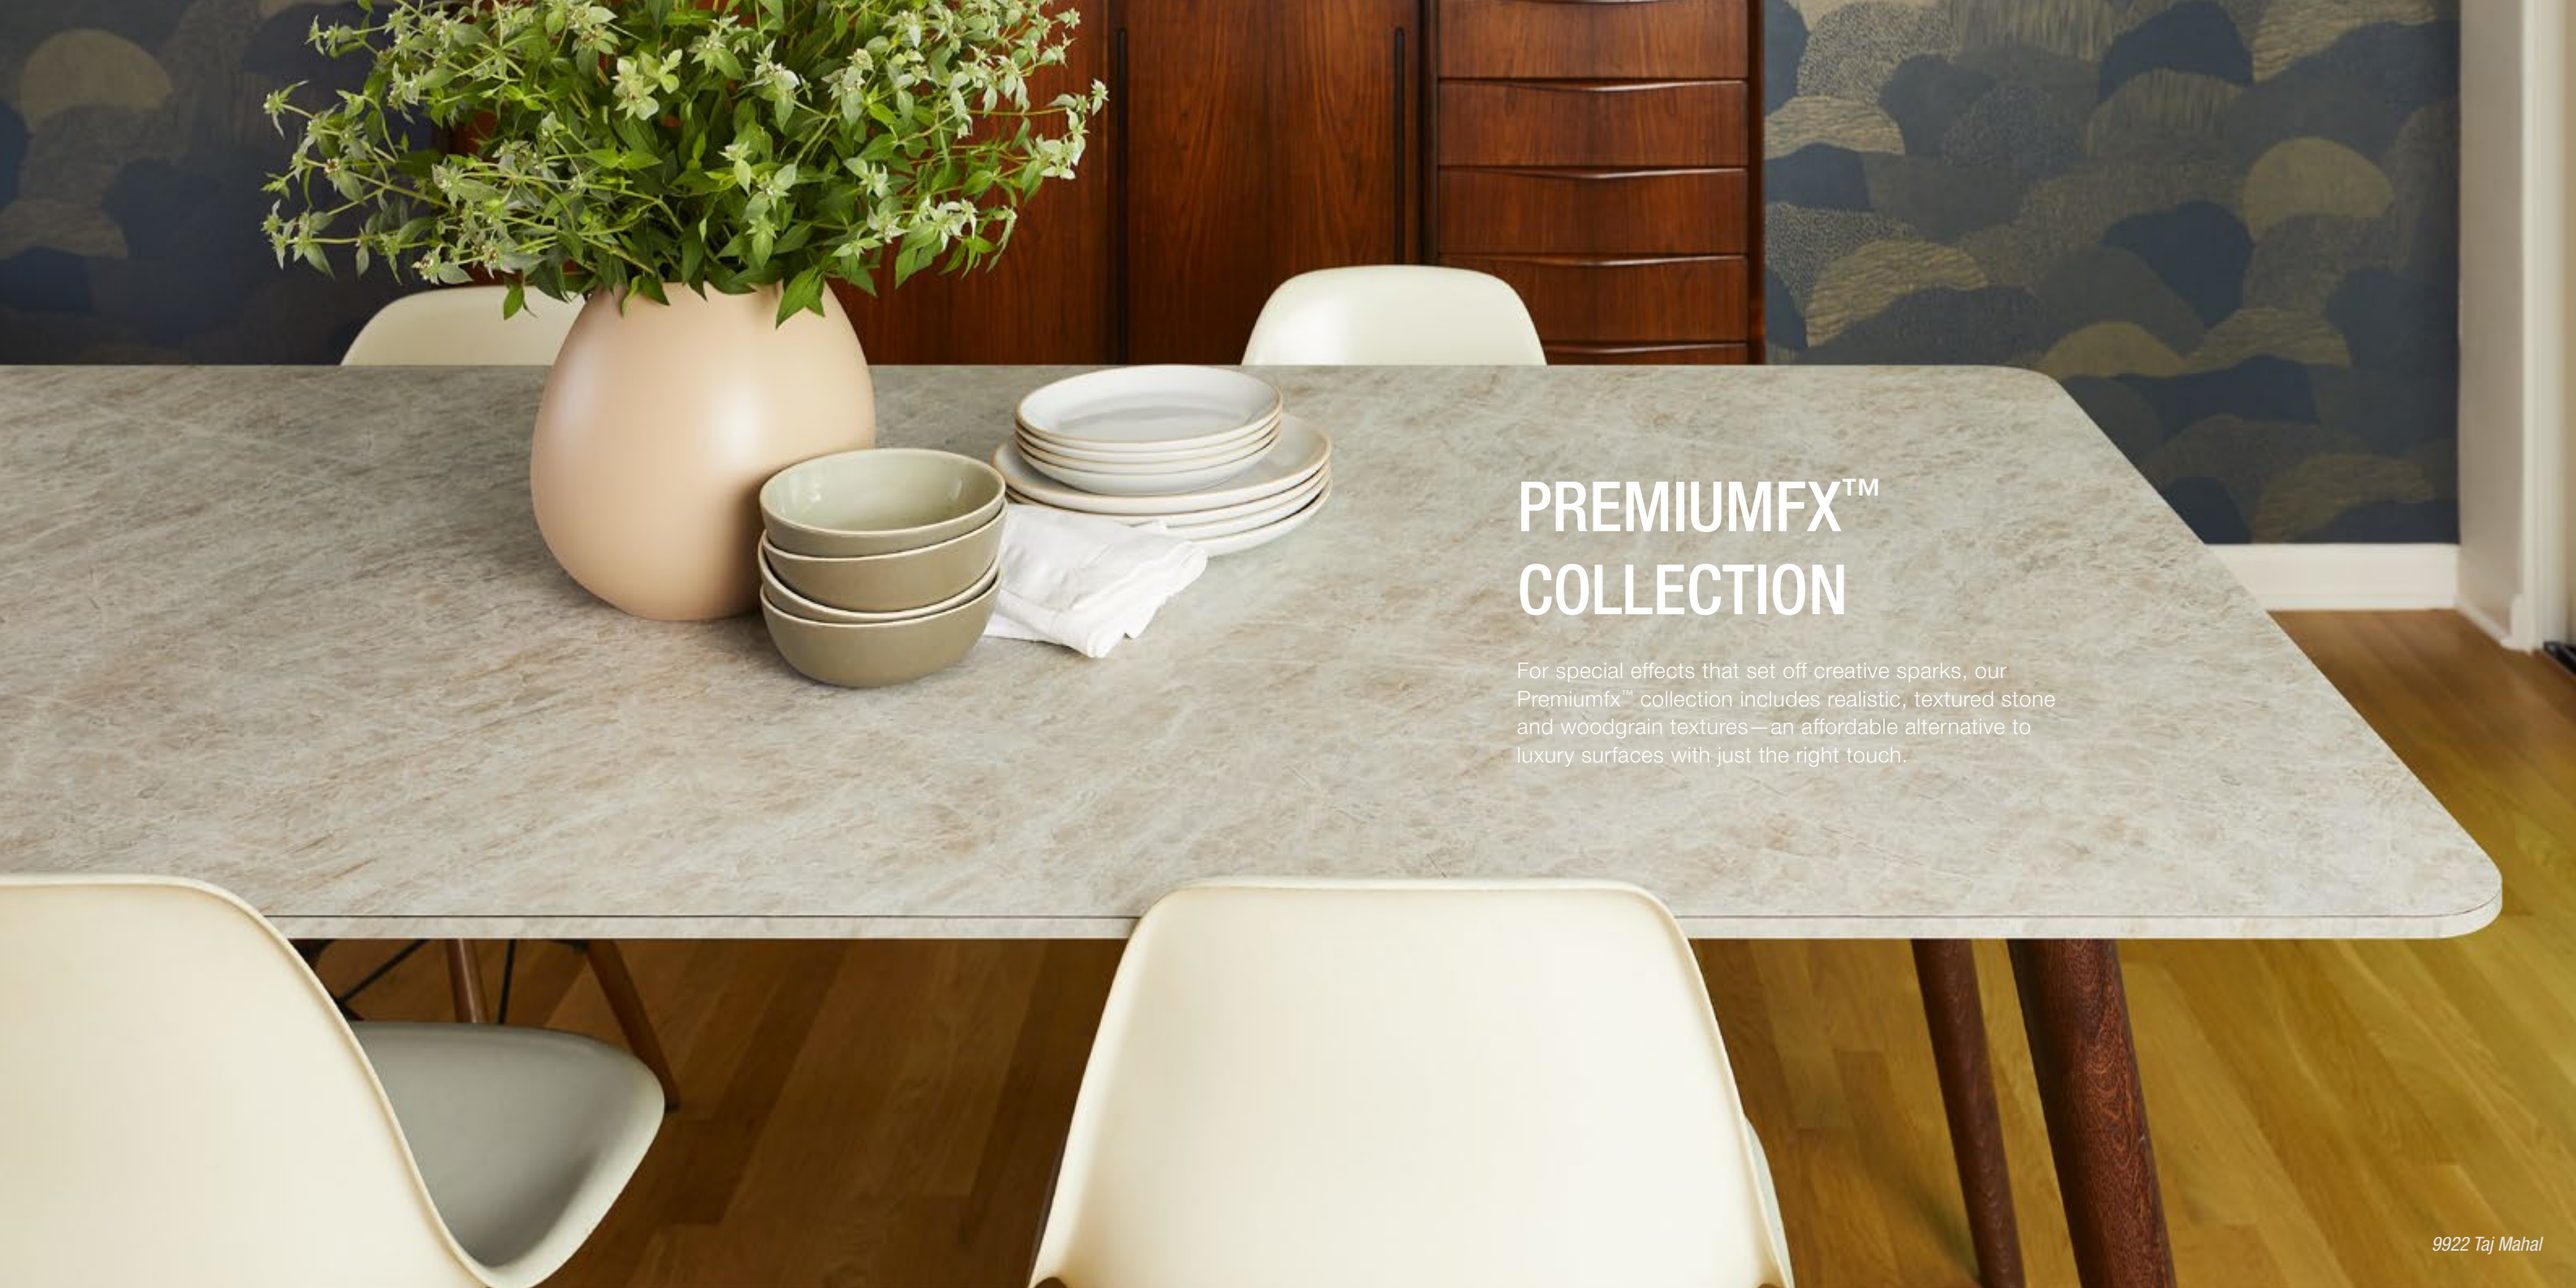
Sophisticated and elegant, this warm quartzite stone pattern is a blend of soft luxurious colour.



9916

FRACTURED MARBLE

This cool white marble is punctuated with bold veining in soft black and brown, creating architectural contrast, depth and dimension.



PREMIUMFX™ COLLECTION

For special effects that set off creative sparks, our Premiumfx™ collection includes realistic, textured stone and woodgrain textures—an affordable alternative to luxury surfaces with just the right touch.

9922 Taj Mahal

9924 PATINE STONE

Rich golden beige, cool gray and natural green mottle the surface like moss and lichen on stone. The Monolith texture adds a rich texture to the pattern.

9923 PATINE CHALK

A clean white background dappled with layers of cool gray gives a porous visual texture accentuated by the warm hand of the Monolith texture.

8685

LUXE MANGO

Mango wood is increasing in popularity as it is a sustainable fast-growing tree. This colourful and lively grained wood pattern is perfect for resimercial settings. Its luxurious mid-tone brown colouring features curvy golden beige and green-gray graining.

9922

TAJ MAHAL

One of the most well-known quartzites in the world, Taj Mahal is refined and subtle, featuring a creamy warm stone pattern filled with thick veining of quartzite crystals. The addition of the Monolith texture adds a warm matte texture.

9925 Foliage

MODERN ESSENTIALS™ COLLECTION

Mix and match solids, woodgrains, graphic patterns or stone looks to achieve your project goals.

9925 FOLIAGE

Foliage captures the silhouette of natural leaves against a subtly textured cool gray concrete background. Soft gray-green and beige leaves are sporadically placed, creating a subtle biophilic visual texture.

6001 BIANCO ANTICO

Bianco Antico features a soft warm white background with gray and golden-brown quartz crystal formations featured evenly throughout the pattern. Hints of black mica punctuate the pattern adding depth and drama.
